We acknowledge the Anishinaabek, Haudenosaunee, Lūnaapéewak and Attawandaron peoples, on whose traditional lands Western University sits and on whose land we live, work and learn.

1. Course Description:

Political and legal issues are inseparable in contemporary examinations of land use, self-determination, governance, individual and community rights. This course will examine the legal institutions and practices of traditional Indigenous cultures as well as contemporary practice.

Course Format: online & asynchronous

3 lecture hours, 0.5 course

Prerequisite: 1.0 course from Indigenous Studies 2213F/G, Indigenous Studies 2218F/G, History 2201E, History 2205E, Law 2101, Political Science 2103A/B, Political Science 2230E, GSWS 2260, the former Anthropology 2218F/G.

Antirequisite: Political Science 3398F/G.
Unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

2. Learning Outcomes:

This online course will provide students with the foundational knowledge and skills required to scholastically engage with Indigenous legal theory, politics and legal orders. In this course, students will:

- Develop basic knowledge of Indigenous and Canadian laws and legal orders, including foundational terminology.
- Consider the nature of law, what is and is not law, and learn how to talk about laws and legal orders.
- Better understand how law has been a tool of colonization; consider if and how law can be a tool of decolonization and Indigenous resurgence.
- Explore the tensions between Indigenous laws and Canadian state laws and political institutions, the historical and contemporary foundations of the legal orders in which we live, how law has and continues to function as a tool of colonization, and how it influences the legal and political systems in which we live.
- Consider legal, political, social, environmental and cultural issues past and present, as well as the possibilities and challenges of fighting for rights and recognition within and outside of the Canadian state legal system.
- Build skills in reading and analyzing legal and political documents as well as practice applying legal concepts and working from the strengths-based “legal toolbox” as they approach (de)colonization and resurgence.

3. Course Materials:

There is no textbook for this course. All readings are available online through the UWO library and/or are publicly available. See the notes after each reading for more information on how to find it.

The readings outlined in the syllabus are intended as preparatory or complementary to the lecture (and similarly to an in-person course) are to be completed outside of the 3 hours of “class time”.

Additional materials may be assigned for reading and review in your weekly activities. Those materials are meant to be read/used within the 3-hour “class time” window.

4. Communication

Course materials will be posted weekly on Tuesdays at 12 noon. Office hours are Mondays 10-12.
This course will use the OWL forum for discussions. Students should post all course-related content on the discussion forum so that everyone can access answers to questions. These discussion forums will be monitored frequently by the instructor.

Students should contact their instructor(s) using OWL Messages. The instructor will aim to reply to student messages within 1 business day.

The instructor may use the official university e-mail address to contact a student. It is the responsibility of the account holder to ensure that e-mail received from the University at his/her official university address is attended to in a timely manner.

6. Late Assignments & Accommodations
Late assignments without illness self-reports will be penalized 5% per day, up to 25%. After five days (25%), the assignment will not be accepted.
Late assessments with illness self-reports should be submitted within 48 hours of submission of the last illness self-report.
An assessment cannot be submitted after it has been returned to the class; An alternate assessment will be assigned OR the weight will be transferred to the final grade.
Grades will not be adjusted on the basis of need. It is important to monitor your performance in the course.

Accommodation Policies
Students with disabilities work with Accessible Education (formerly SSD) which provides recommendations for accommodation based on medical documentation or psychological and cognitive testing. The accommodation policy can be found here: Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities.

Academic Consideration for Student Absence
Students will have up to two (2) opportunities during the regular academic year to use an online portal to self-report an absence during the term, provided the following conditions are met: the absence is no more than 48 hours in duration, and the assessment for which consideration is being sought is worth 30% or less of the student’s final grade. Students are expected to contact their instructors within 24 hours of the end of the period of the self-reported absence, unless noted on the syllabus. Students are not able to use the self-reporting option in the following circumstances: - for exams scheduled by the Office of the Registrar (e.g., December and April exams) - absence of a duration greater than 48 hours, - assessments worth more than 30% of the student’s final grade, - if a student has already used the self-reporting portal twice during the academic year If the conditions for a Self-Reported Absence are not met, students will need to provide a Student Medical Certificate if the absence is medical, or provide appropriate documentation if there are compassionate grounds for the absence in question. Students are encouraged to contact their Faculty academic counselling office to obtain more information about the relevant documentation. Students should also note that individual instructors are not permitted to receive documentation directly from a student, whether in support of an application for consideration on medical grounds, or for other reasons. All documentation required for absences that are not covered by the Self-Reported Absence Policy must be submitted to the Academic Counselling office of a student's Home Faculty.

For Western University policy on Consideration for Student Absence, see:

Policy on Academic Consideration for Student Absences - Undergraduate Students in First Entry Programs and for the Student Medical Certificate (SMC), see:

Religious Accommodation

Students should consult the University’s list of recognized religious holidays, and should give reasonable notice in writing, prior to the holiday, to the Instructor and an Academic Counsellor if their course requirements will be affected by a religious observance. Additional information is given in the Western Multicultural Calendar.

7. General Classroom Policies

Classroom Code of Conduct:

Please be professional, kind and courteous in all aspects of this course. This course may deal with concepts that are challenging or surface tensions between worldviews and perspectives of students and the instructor. Please use civil language in discussion groups.

Use of Electronic Devices

Due to the nature of this online, asynchronous course and as all the assignments are intended to include research and the use of external resources, students are encouraged to use electronic devices throughout the course.

Use of Recordings

Recordings of course materials are intended for educational purposes within the course. Please do not share lectures without the instructor’s permission.
Recordings generated by students for assignments will be used for educational purposes within the course. Please do not share or repost without the students consent.

On Collaboration

Collaboration is encouraged throughout this course. Students are encouraged to discuss concepts and share ideas. However, your writing and assignment submissions should be your own thoughts and words. The words on the page, how they are structured and how they shape your argument belong to you and should not be copied.

8. Academic Offenses

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence.

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (http://www.turnitin.com).

9. Western’s Commitment to Accessibility

Western strives at all times to provide accessibility to all faculty, staff, students and visitors in a way that respects the dignity and independence of people with disabilities. Please contact the course instructor if you require material in an alternate format or if you require any other arrangements to make this course more accessible to you. You may also wish to contact Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) at 519-661-2147 for any specific question regarding an accommodation. Information regarding accommodation of exams is available on the Registrar’s website.

More information about “Accessibility at Western” is available.
